Atlas Energy — Solar Output Report 2024

Overview

This report records electricity generated by the Atlas Energy solar installation during calendar year 2024. The figures are fictional and intended for a Multi-Document RAG demo.

Annual Generation

The solar installation generated 120 megawatt-hours (MWh) of electricity in 2024.

Operations

The strongest production months were May through August. Planned panel cleaning took place in April and September.